EDWARDS SCISSORHANDS AT THE KENNEDY CENTER s/c

Washington, D.C.

Tony Award Winner Matthew Bourne and New Adventures make their Kennedy Center debut with a magical new dance adaptation of the classic Tim Burton motion picture Edward Scissorhands. This touching and witty gothic fairy-tale follows the story of a boy created by an eccentric inventor, whose sudden death leaves the boy alone and unfinished. With only scissors for hands, Edward must find his place in a strange new world, where the well-meaning community struggles to see past his appearance to the gentleness within.

Included is price of ticket for the best mezzanine seat available at a group tour rate. Transportation is on your own.
